

CHP-006
u get what you pay for at

Har & Funk's

Cash Grocery.

SKILLED OPTICIAN.

pleased to announce to the at I have taken a graduate the eye, under one of the occurists of Chicago. I am to fit difficult cases, having the rooms occupied by J. A. the Penick Block. will be no charge for exami-shall make a special feature at night. Office hours 7:30 days; during the day enquire business place. I shall pay attention to optical work.

E. LOCKWOOD,

OPHTHALMIC OPTICIAN.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

it may concern:

certifies that Mr. J. E. Lock-taken a special course under on in refraction and accom-and I regard him as thor-oficient and competent to case of refractive error that under his care.

J. LYDSTON, M. D., Ph. G., Ophthalmologist and Otologist to St. Joseph's and Lecturer on Ophthalmology at the Chicago College of Physicians and Surgeons,
CHICAGO, ILLS.
1, 1895.

—After a two week's visit with their parents in Chariton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith and son returned to their home in Kansas city on Sunday.

—Charley Connell and Leander Gil-laspy, who with their families made an overland trip to Ceresco, Nebraska, returned from their two week's outing on Friday last. They report a very enjoyable trip.

—Mrs. Luella Smith, who has been visiting the past six weeks with her mother, Mrs. Elyira Willoughby, was joined last week by her husband, and together they left for their home in Kansas city, Missouri, on Sunday morning.

—Died, at his home in Lincoln township, Saturday, September 28, Carl Larson, aged seventy-five years. A wife and eight children survive him. Four of his children who live in Kansas were not present. The remains were laid to rest Tuesday in the Chariton cemetery.

—A. I. Kurtz expects to take a week's vacation next week and will visit St. Louis fair. Mr. Kurtz has been one of the valued members of the PATRIOT office over six years and in that time has not been absent more than one day at a time in all the years of faithful performance of his duties in the office.

—All the friends of G. J. Stewart & Co. were pained to learn that their grain elevator at Pleasantville, Iowa, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night, September 26. A large amount of grain was damaged and destroyed upon which there was no insurance.
The elevator belonged to the Eikenberry estate and was insured for $1,500.

—Married on Sunday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stroud, Dick Lee Barnett and Agnes Stroud, Rev. Atwood the Q, having been Ottumwa, has moved that city.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fra
Tuesday morning for a visit to Mrs. Shula Mathis and family.

—Mrs. Laura Agne
visiting her mother, M nick, went to Council day to visit friends.

—Mrs. C. E. Turner
Mrs. Will Glaze made, St. Joe last week, going and returning Saturday

—H. Blouse attended ference at Indianola a from the Chariton chur a most interesting and

—Rev. Hancock of T over in Chariton with ton on Tuesday evening return from the M. I Indianola.

—D. S. and J. J. Mye have just received the of the marriage of the Naunie Myers and Logan of Linden, Iowa

—Rev. Joseph A. Ru who have been spending in Canada and the east, on Tuesday. Their fri gladly welcome them ba

—Miss May Brock h sewing rooms to what he ly known as the John now owned by David Fl east of the Baptist chur

—Harry Douglass r week from a months'
cave, South Dakota, t him many specimen i from that beautiful cou

—We had copied part awarded premiums and courtesy of Secretary given the full list but t extra work caused by