There will be an autumn crazy tea supper given in Oakley at the city hall (Reeves' building) Saturday evening, November 2nd. The Oakley brass band will furnish music and a general good time is expected. Everybody invited. Proceeds go toward support of M. E. church.

While going home from Oakley last Saturday evening Johnny Krutinger was thrown from the pony which he was riding, the pony stepping on his arm and breaking both bones between the wrist and elbow. He was taken to Mr. Nussbaum's and a doctor summoned who reduced the fracture and, although the fracture is quite painful, it is not regarded as being dangerous.

On last Friday evening a surprise pound social was given by the citizens of this locality at Rev. Knoll's. Rev. and Mrs. Knoll had been invited to take supper at Mr. W. H. Burgett's, a little girl having been sent as a spy to see where they hid the key to their house when they left. At about 7:30 Mr. and Mrs. Knoll noticed that their company was no longer desired at Mr. Burgett's, consequently they went home. Upon entering the house and lighting a lamp they found their house filled with guests who had been sitting there in the dark, each one having brought a present consisting of one pound, and many of them had brought more than one pound. Mr. and Mrs.
Knoll were entirely surprised and after expressing their thanks to their many friends a pleasant evening was spent and all went home happy.
