MARRIAGES

NOREN—ERLANDSON.

A quiet wedding took place at Stanton, Iowa, on Tuesday forenoon, October 30, 1900, Miss Emma Erlandson of this city being united in marriage to Rev. A. Noren of Stanton, pastor of the Swedish Mission church at that place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Person of Red Oak. They will reside on his farm near Stanton.
The bride is well known in this city where she has resided for many years.
She is refined and unassuming and will prove a congenial helpmate for her worthy husband. Rev. Noren was formerly pastor of the Swedish Mission church here.

DEATHS

A. R. JAMES

Died, at the home of his sister in Denver, Colorado, Oct. 22, 1900, Albert R. James. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Caleb James, of Des Moines, and is a brother of Mrs. I. A. Fain of Whitebreast township. He resided in Chariton for many years and was well known throughout the county.
He had been in poor health for some time and had gone to Colorado for his health.

HAROLD ARTHUR COLES.

Harold Arthur Coles, little son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Coles, died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lott, in Lacona on Thursday, October 25, at the age of six years, after a brief illness with diphtheria. On Friday the remains were laid to rest in the Chariton cemetery by the side of his three brothers.
